

From: Marty Criswell
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 11:38pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

My name is Marty Criswell 730 Allen rd Lot 170 Manhattan, KS 66502 and I wanted to give my view on how Microsoft should be disciplined for violating antitrust laws. The easiest solution I believe would to require Microsoft to open the source code for the operating system. Microsoft would be able to keep the source for the other products but would no longer be able to prohibit other software developers from producing better programs.